5 OVERTIME GAMES HIGHLIGHT 1ST WEEK

The 1989/90 International Hockey League season started with a bang of the boards and a swish of the nets with 9 games being played over the weekend. 5 of those games went to the overtime period before being decided with 3 games extending into a shootout period. 2 other games were decided by only 2 goals with the winning team scoring empty net goals in each occasion. 4 teams (Fort Wayne, Indianapolis, Milwaukee, and Phoenix) played into overtime in both their games.

Jason Hannigan scored a hat trick for the Fort Wayne Komets versus the Indianapolis Ice on Saturday night. Busiest goaltender this week was Stephane Beauregard of Fort Wayne who faced 77 shots from the Indianapolis Ice in 2 games. Beauregard stopped 70 shots and won both games.

MUSKEGON & SALT LAKE LEAD DIVISIONS

In a replay of the 1988/89 season, the Muskegon Lumberjacks and the Salt Lake Golden Eagles continue their winning ways as they move to the top of their respective divisions. Neither team has lost in regulation during the 1989/90 season. The Lumberjacks won both of their games this week being led by the line of Mark Recchi (4 goals - 2 assists with 1 hat trick), Dave Michayluk (2 goals - 2 assists) and Dan Frawley (1 goal - 4 assists). The Golden Eagles posted a 2-0-1 record for the week behind the scoring of Rich Chernomaz (5 goals - 3 assists with a hat trick), Tim Sweeney (2 goals - 6 assists) and defenseman Darryl Olsen (2 goals - 5 assists).

In the "Once In A Decade" category, this week goaltender Randy Exelby of the Phoenix Roadrunners received a minor penalty under Rule 32(i) for playing the puck when he was beyond the center red line.

Hat tricks for the week to Rich Chernomaz of the Salt Lake Golden Eagles and to Mark Recchi of the Muskegon Lumberjacks.

RIVERMEN ROARING IN PEORIA

After losing the initial 2 games of the 1989/90 season the Peoria Rivermen have charted a new path and put together a 5 game winning streak as they move to the top of the IHL standings at the end of the 3rd week. The Rivermen weren't playing the easy teams either as they toppled Salt Lake, Kalamazoo, and Milwaukee during their streak. The Rivermen game with the Muskegon Lumberjacks, scheduled for Sunday, was postponed when the Lumberjacks experienced bus difficulties.

The Flint Spirits and the Milwaukee Admirals also posted perfect records this week with the Spirits defeating the Fort Wayne Komets and the Phoenix Roadrunners while the Admirals swept a pair of games from the Muskegon Lumberjacks.

Players posting big weeks individually were Kevin Evans (3-2=5) of Kalamazoo; Tim Lenardon (3-2=5), Todd Hawkins (2-3=5) and David Bruce (3-2=5) of Milwaukee; Michel Mongeau (3-3=6), Mike Wolak (3-2=5), and Jim Vesey (3-3=6) of Peoria; Darren Lowe (3-2=5), Rob Zaumier (4-3=7), and Joe Paterson (2-4=6) of Flint; and Keith Miller (3-3=6), Joe Stefan (4-1=5), and Bob Lakso (2-3=5) of Fort Wayne.

EAST DIVISION A PERFECT "10"

The East Division shows balance in the early going of the season as quality goaltending over the weekend has knotted the 4 teams with 10 points apiece. The Fort Wayne Komets goaltending duo of Stephane Beauregard and Frederick Chabot slammed the doors on the nets this week as they recorded back-to-back shutouts over the two division leading teams. On Friday night, Beauregard led the Komets into Muskegon to face the Lumberjacks and kicked out 22 shots as the Komets posted a 4-0 win. On Saturday the Komets were home the streaking Peoria Rivermen with Chabot turning aside 29 shots as he stopped the Rivermen winning streak at 6 games with a 6-0 win. Also on Saturday night Bruce Racine of the Muskegon Lumberjacks shutdown the high scoring Flint Spirits offense, blocking 22 shots as the Lumberjacks won by a 7-0 margin.

Top individual scorers around the IHL this week were Doug Evans (2-2=4) of the Peoria Rivermen; Keith Miller (3-2=5), Bob Lakso (3-2=5), Ron Handy (2-3=5), Byron Lomow (1-4=5) and Colin Chin (3-1=4) of the Fort Wayne Komets; Mike Rucinski (1-3=4), Sean Williams (1-3=4), and Jari Torkki (2-3=5) on the Indianapolis Ice; Mike McHugh (1-3=4) of the Kalamazoo Wings; and Brent Sapergia (2-2=4) and Bruce Boudreau (2-2=4) of the Phoenix Roadrunners.

WAITE — THE ICE MAKE THEIR MOVE

Jim Waite, Indianapolis Ice goaltender, stood up to be counted this week and, when the counting was done, only 3 pucks had gotten behind him as he shutout the Salt Lake Golden Eagles on 2 consecutive nights after having yielding 3 goals to the league leading Kalamazoo Wings earlier in the week. Ray LeBlanc then stepped into the nets for the Ice and denied the Peoria Rivermen for 2 periods on his way to a win as the Ice post a 3-1-0 week and claim a share of the West Division lead along with the Rivermen. The Ice outshot their opponents by a 170 to 84 margin this week.

Top scorers this week were Bob Lakso (3-1=4) and Carl Mokosak (0-4=4) of Fort Wayne; Mitch Messier (1-3=4) and Mario Thyer (1-3=4) of Kalamazoo; Dan Frawley (0-4=4) of Muskegon; Jim Vesey (4-2=6), Doug Evans (2-3=5), and Richard Pion (2-2=4) of Peoria; and Larry Floyd (1-3=4) of Phoenix. Jim Vesey had a hat trick versus Kalamazoo.

MERRY CHRISTMAS FROM THE IHL

The IHL was in the Christmas spirit this week as league teams both gave and received with every team earning at least 1 point this week in a light week of action. The Phoenix Roadrunners and the Milwaukee both posted 2-1-0 records for the week.

Quintin (3-2=5) of the Kalamazoo Wings; Curtis Hunt (0-4=4) of the Milwaukee Admirals; Michel Mongeau (1-5=6), Doug Evans (2-2=4), David Thomlinson (2-3=5), and Keith Osborne (3-1=4) of the Peoria Rivermen; Bruce Boudreau (2-3=5), Brent Sapergia (3-1=4), and Steve Johnson (2-5=7) of the Phoenix Roadrunners; and Tim Sweeney (1-5=6), Darryl Olsen (1-3=4), and Randy Bucyk (3-4=7) of the Salt Lake Golden Eagles. ICE & WINGS LEAD THE WAY IN 1990

The Indianapolis Ice and the Kalamazoo Wings lead the IHL into the new decade after a week of furious action which featured 19 games in the IHL. The Muskegon Lumberjacks, bolstered by Jock Callander joining the club, posted a 3-1-0 record for the week and moved 2 points closer to the East Division leading Kalamazoo Wings. In the West Division the Indianapolis Ice struggled through the recall of 3 top players during the week, posting a 3-2 record, and opening their lead in the division to 4 points over the Peoria Rivermen. Rich Chernomaz of Salt Lake returned to action from the injured list and posted a hat trick versus Muskegon with Scott Gruhl of Muskegon also scoring the hat trick versus Flint.

Top scorers this week include Simon Wheeldon (1-5=6) of Flint; Ron Handy (3-6=9), Colin Chin (3-4=7), and Bob Lakso (1-5=6) of Fort Wayne; Mario Doyon (2-4=6) of Indianapolis; Gary Emmons (2-5=7) of Kalamazoo; Rob Murphy (5-2=7) and Jeff Rohlicek (2-4=6) of Milwaukee; Scott Gruhl (6-1=7), Jock Callander (1-5=6), and Jeff Daniels (1-5=6) of Muskegon; Michel Mongeau (2-4=6) of Peoria; and Randy Bucyk (2-4=6) of Salt Lake.

ROADRUNNERS CLOSING GROUND

While attention is being focused at the top of the standings where Indianapolis and Muskegon battle for the IHL lead and Flint and Kalamazoo battle for 2nd in the East and the right to challenge the Lumberjacks for the East division lead the forgotten Phoenix Roadrunners have slipped up on the pack and are challenging the Milwaukee Admirals and the Salt Lake Golden Eagles for 3rd place in the West Division after posting a 2-1-1 week. Indianapolis regained the overall league lead with a 4-0-1 week with Kalamazoo (3-0-1), Muskegon (3-1-0) and Flint (2-1-1) also having great weeks.

Top scorers this week include Dave Archibald (0-6=6) of Flint; Mike Rucinski (6-0-6), Jim Johansson (3-3=6), Brian Noonan (3-4=7), and Bob Bassen (3-3=6) of Indianapolis; Ed Courtenay (4-2=6) of Kalamazoo; Dave Michayluk (2-5=7), Scott Gruhl (2-7=9), Dan Frawley (5-2=7), Jocke Callander (1-5=6) and Brad Aitken (3-4=7) of Muskegon; Michel Mongeau (3-4=7) of Peoria; and Larry Floyd (4-2=6) and Steve Johnson (1-5=6) of Phoenix. Perry Gancher of Muskegon had a hat trick.

ICE AND WINGS STREAKING

The Indianapolis Ice and the Kalamazoo Wings are good examples of two "hot" hockey clubs. During the past 2 weeks the Ice have gathered in 14 of a possible 16 points (6-0-2) while the Wings grabbed 13 of a possible 14 points (6-0-1). Consequently, the Ice have taken possession of 1st place in the league while the Wings have climbed to within 3 points of the Muskegon Lumberjacks for 1st place in the East Division.

Top scorers this week include Gary Emmons (4-1=5), Peter Lappin (3-2=5), and Mitch Messier (2-3=5) of Kalamazoo; David Bruce (2-4=6) and Tim Lenardon (2-4=6) of Milwaukee; Dave Michayluk (5-3=8), Scott Gruhl (1-4=5), and Jock Callander (3-3=6) of Muskegon; and Tim Sweeney (3-2=5), Marc Bureau (1-6=7), and Darryl Olsen (0-5=5) of Salt Lake. Jose Charbonneau of Milwaukee and Keith Miller of Fort Wayne scored hat tricks this week while Rick Knickle of Flint shutout the Milwaukee Admirals.

WAITE POSTS BACK-TO-BACK SHUTOUTS

Jim Waite of the Indianapolis Ice again showed why he's the top goaltender in the IHL this season as, for the 2nd time, he posted consecutive shutouts. Waite first blanked the Kalamazoo Wings in Kalamazoo and then returned to Indianapolis to shutdown the Milwaukee Admirals. The Ice now have 8 shutouts for the year, the most since the Muskegon Mohawks had 10 in the 1972/73 season..

The Muskegon Lumberjacks continue to roll with their 7th consecutive win as they regain 1st place overall in the IHL. The Indianapolis Ice outshot the Peoria Rivermen 30 to 6 in the second period and 58 to 26 overall during Sunday's game. The Ice lost the game 6 to 4.

Top scorers this week include Brian Noonan (2-5=7) of the Indianapolis Ice; Gary Emmons (2-3=5) of the Kalamazoo Wings; Michel Mongeau (5-5=10), Jim Vesey (5-6=11), and Dave Thomlinson (1-5=6) of the Peoria Rivermen; and Marc Bureau (5-4=9), Tim Sweeney (4-3=7), Darryl Olsen (0-6=6), Rick Barkovich (5-0=5), and Martin Simard (1-4=5) of the Salt Lake Golden Eagles. Both Marc Bureau and Tim Sweeney of Salt Lake had hat tricks as did Jim Vesey of Peoria.

Release #26

THE RACES CONTINUE

With only a week remaining the only thing decided is that Phoenix won't be in the Turner Cup playoffs this year. Three teams continue to fight for the Huber Cup as the regular season champion with Indianapolis, Kalamazoo, and Muskegon having also locked up home ice advantage in the quarterfinal round of the playoffs. Salt Lake needs either a win or a Milwaukee loss to assure themselves of home ice advantage in the West division. Flint and Fort Wayne continue to battle for the 3rd and 4th position in the East division while Peoria is only 2 points behind Milwaukee in the race for 3rd in the West.

Top scorers this week include Rob Zamuner (4-3=7), Lee Giffin (3-6=9), Darren Lowe (2-6=8), Dave Archibald (3-8=11), and Rudy Poeschek (4-2=6) of Flint; Bob Lakso (4-2=6), Ron Handy (3-3=6), and Mike deCarle (3-3=6) of Fort Wayne; Brian Noonan (4-4=8) of Indianapolis; Kevin Evans (2-7=9) and Mitch Messier (0-6=6) of Kalamazoo; Terry Menard (2-4=6) of Milwaukee; Brian Wilks (3-4=7) of Muskegon; Michel Mongeau (2-10=12), Jim Vesey (7-3=10), Dave Thomlinson (2-5=7), and Scott Paluch (4-3=7) of Peoria; Bruce Boudreau (2-5=7), Jim McGeough (3-3=6), Nick Beaulieu (5-2=7) and Steve Johnson (1-5=6) of Phoenix; and Randy Bucyk (3-3=6) of Salt Lake. Bob Lakso of Fort Wayne and Jim Vesey of Peoria scored hat tricks this week.
